Yes you can, the person collecting the costume on your behalf must have a valid ID along with an authorization letter which should include the purchasers ID. Similarly if you sold your costume the same requirements apply; please also email us in advance and update your invoice.

12. What would you recommend for first timers?

- ✓ Start the morning with a good breakfast (lots of carbs to soak up the liquor).
- ✓ Keep hydrated, drink lots of water throughout the day. We recommend a bottle of water for every 3 alcoholic drinks.
- ✓ Wear comfortable footwear. We don't recommend wearing a new pair on the day of the Parade.
- ✓ Don't wander off alone, stay with friends on the road within the security ropes.
- ✓ You have the freedom to enhance your costume but leave valuables at home. Don't carry unnecessary items. No flashy expensive jewelry, no excessive amount of money, etc. The band is all-inclusive you don't need money!
- ✓ Don't forget sunblock, the sun can be unforgiving. (Minimum SPF 30 recommended).
- ✓ Things to carry: hair pins, safety pins, body tape, camera, phone discreetly placed on your person, portable phone charger.
- ✓ LISTEN to the security teams' instructions, they're there to keep you safe.
- ✓ You may not give drinks to persons on the road as your armband will be removed if found doing this
- ✓ Most important FETE FETE FETE! Have fun but drink responsibly.
